

Why Do We Exist?

written by John Mueller | November 24, 2019

Why does the Keweenaw Mountain Lodge exist?

To provide guests in our target market a fun, joyous, and adventuresome wilderness experience so they can disengage from their everyday lives and be closer to nature.

How is this done?

Through our lodging services, available outdoor activities, dining services, and event and education offerings. Our decisions in how we offer these services are aligned with our values and marrying history with the future to get to a vibrant and progressive present.

What do we provide?

- Lodging
- Outdoor Activities
- Dining
- Events and Education

What sets us apart?

- Our rustic facilities (cabins, main lodge) mixed with the historical nature of the property
- Our access to the wilderness and outdoor activities
- Our rustic worldly food concept
- Our educational activities

Who is the lodge ideally for?

- Individuals who value the history of the lodge and want to see it move forward, outdoor activities, and culinary experiences

- Families, couples, and small groups