

Lodge Hikes

written by Chris Guibert | July 10, 2022

Sightseeing Hike

Hikers explore Manganese Falls

This hike takes us on a 5 mile trek through the Keweenaw wilderness. Along the way will be rocky outcrops, Manganese River, Manganese Falls, and Lake Manganese, the perfect spot for a snack before climbing back up the hill to the Lodge. Hike is rated Moderate-to-Difficult due to length and technical trails.

Dancing Bear Hike

Exploring the conglomerate cliffs on the Dancing Bear trail.

This 2 mile hike will take you past rocky outcrops, under a canopy of brilliant green. Peek views of Lake Manganese from both Dancing Bear and the top of Red trail. Hike is rated Moderate due to technical trail.

Here We Go! Hike

A porcupine spotted along the Here We Go! Trail

This 2.5 mile hike winds down the side of the mountain, and then climbs back up while giving you great views of Lake Superior, Hunter's Point, and even peeks of downtown Copper Harbor! Hike is rated Moderate due to technical trail and incline.

Click on the image above to see an interactive map of the hike

Bullwinkle Hike

A cedar bridge on the Bullwinkle Trail

This 3.5 mile hike will take you over bridges and through tall pine forests. Hike is rated Moderate due to technical trail and incline.

Click on the image above to see an interactive map of the hike.