

Morning Miles

written by John Mueller | June 5, 2020

Start your day off with a quiet hike in the fresh Keweenaw morning air. Morning Miles are guided hikes that meet every Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 10am, hikes leave by 10:15am, at the Outdoor Activities Center. Our guide will take you through our meandering Back 9 trails under a canopy of green, through Dancing Bear with it's rocky outcrops, or we will Say Hello to the views of Lake Superior and Hunter's Point from Here We Go.

Approximately 1.5 to 3 hours, and ~2.5 to 4 miles. Please wear sturdy shoes and carry water, and be prepared to combat whatever bug (blackfly, mosquito etc) has taken over the forest. No sign up or cost, see Events Calendar for specific Morning Miles dates. Also, feel free to take these hikes on your own, or contact outdoor-activities@ to schedule a specific day and time to have a guided hike.

Sightseeing Hike

This hike takes us on a 5 mile trek through the Keweenaw wilderness. Along the way will be rocky outcrops, Manganese River, Manganese Falls, and Lake Manganese, the perfect spot for a snack before climbing back up the hill to the Lodge. Hike is rated Moderate-to-Difficult due to length and technical trails. Take this adventure on your own, or contact outdoor-activities@ to schedule a guide at no cost to you.

Dancing Bear Hike

This 2 mile hike will take you past rocky outcrops, under a canopy of brilliant green. Peek views of Lake Manganese from both Dancing Bear and the top of Red trail. Hike is rated Moderate due to technical trail. Take this adventure on your own, or contact outdoor-activities@ to schedule a guide at no cost to you.

Here We Go! Hike

This 2.5 mile hike winds down the side of the mountain, and then climbs back up while giving you great views of Lake Superior, Hunter's Point, and even peeks of downtown Copper Harbor! Hike is rated Moderate due to technical trail and incline. Take this adventure on your own, or contact outdoor-activities@ to schedule a guide at no cost to you.
