

Corporate Retreats

written by John Mueller | October 28, 2019

Think outside the four-walls of your office, and come enjoy the outdoors to enhance your team's performance and purpose. The wilderness fosters creativity and inspires fresh perspectives, while allowing team members to connect with nature and each other...

Reward the hard workers of your company with a trip to the beautiful Keweenaw Peninsula. Nestled in the wilderness at the top of the Keweenaw, the Keweenaw Mountain Lodge offers unique, cozy lodging and a spacious meeting/presentation space with full audio-video capabilities. Rustic and relaxing dining, and fun, adventurous opportunities for team building events. Your group will flourish in the quiet, clean air of the Keweenaw.
