Explore the Northern Wilderness.*

The Keweenaw Mountain Lodge is a wilderness resort that offers a fun, joyous, adventuresome experience for visitors from all over the world. We welcome guests to a far northern wilderness paradise that feels like a world away from everyday life, and we provide the amenities and expertise that make their experience memorable.

WHAT

A wilderness resort is an all-inclusive vacation experience built around enjoying the beauty, adventure and serenity offered in nature.

WHY

A wilderness resort provides a unique opportunity to disconnect from the distractions and busyness of modern urban life and discover the increasingly rare joys found in nature.

WHEN

The best time to visit a wilderness resort is the season you enjoy most, from the lazy days of summer to the exhilarating thrill of winter, from the wildflowers of spring to the glorious colors of autumn.

WHO

A wilderness resort offers a uniquely rewarding experience for just about everyone:

- Families who want to enjoy each other without the distractions of technology.
- Companies who want to encourage team building and creative inspiration.
- Couples who find romance in the thrill of outdoor adventure.
- Anyone looking to trade the daily grind of urban life for the beauty and serenity of nature.

HOW

From thrilling adventure to peaceful relaxation, there are countless ways to enjoy a wilderness resort—it all depends on your individual wishes, needs and personality.

- Hike through a forest of 500-year-old white pines to a 360-degree overlook of the Keweenaw coastline.
- Experience the thrill of flying down a world-class mountain biking trail.
- Take a canoe or kayak trip, a stand-up paddleboard ride, or an icy cold plunge into the world's biggest freshwater lake.
- Read a good book on a cabin porch surrounded by songbirds and butterflies.
- Experience the electric thrill of a lake trout biting your line.
- Enjoy cocktails and conversation on a screened-in porch while summer rain patters against the window.
- Play a round of golf as bald eagles wheel overhead.
- Sit beside a towering bonfire while feasting your eyes on one of Lake Superior's unforgettable sunsets.

A great experience at Keweenaw Mountain Lodge starts with setting a guest's expectations properly.

BE POSITIVE

A wilderness resort is a unique type of vacation experience, with opportunities that can't be found at mainstream hotels and destinations. The usual amenities that we don't offer are balanced by the exceptional amenities we do provide.

BE UNDERSTANDING

Many Keweenaw Mountain Lodge guests are people who have never visited this area before. As their hosts, it falls to the Keweenaw Mountain Lodge team to understand what they might not know, and help them prepare for a successful visit. When a guest calls to book their stay, the questions you ask about their goals for the visit will set the stage for a successful, enjoyable experience.

BE HELPFUL

As excited as our guests will be to arrive here, they may find themselves disoriented and confused at first. Think about how you can help them find their bearings. What should they know about this area that will help them have a great time? What information about the Keweenaw Mountain Lodge (its history, location, natural surroundings) will help them enjoy their stay here and make it memorable?

BE HONEST

Guests will enjoy themselves more if they have accurate expectations of our unique wilderness resort experience. It's important not to "sell" a guest on features that we might not always be able to provide.

BE FRIENDLY

A guest takes their cue from your attitude. When you are open, warm and welcoming, you set the tone for an interaction that will leave the guest feeling happy and satisfied with their experience.

The Keweenaw Peninsula is a fun, joyous, adventuresome place to live and visit. Your pride in this place, and your excitement about sharing it, are what you can bring to your position as a team member of the Keweenaw Mountain Lodge.
